

Update from All Saints' Email to the Parish from The Rev. Simone Hurkmans

June 5, 2020

Happy Friday everyone,

A week that started on the cool side ends with beautiful spring/summer weather. I hope you were able to get out and enjoy the sunshine out there today.

It's been a busy week getting organized, checking in with people and preparing Sunday's service. All the while, watching the news and praying for justice, peace and calm. I hope that those of you who attended this afternoon's rally downtown stayed safe and distanced.

I'm very excited to share the first instalment of our brand new Summer Sunday School series. Barbara has been hard at work preparing wonderfully interactive videos for our youngest Saints. You can find the first of these on the Parish's Facebook page. This week's program is on Birds. Again, you don't need to have a Facebook account to view it:

I thought I would offer a Bible verse relevant to what we're seeing in the world these days. Tonight's verses are from Micah:

Hear what the Lord says: Rise, plead your case before the mountains, and let the hills hear your voice. He has told you, O mortal, what is good; and what does the Lord require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God? (Micah 6:1,8, NRSV)

Have a lovely evening,

Simone+
