

Update from All Saints'

Email to the Parish from The Rev. Simone Hurkmans

July 11, 2020

Hello everyone,

Today was a little cooler with some much-needed rain. We walked down to the Farmer's Market now located at McKellar Park. It was lovely to feel some sense of normalcy as we browsed the stands - at a distance.

Please find attached the service bulletin for tomorrow, the 6th Sunday After Pentecost. You can watch the service here:

Bishop Shane's podcast has another episode available. This week he speaks with staff of our Diocese's Community Ministries who have been doing a wonderful job during this difficult time. You can listen to Episode 5 here:

Take care, and hope to "see" you tomorrow,

"Listen! A sower went out to sow. And as he sowed, some seeds fell on the path, and the birds came and ate them up. Other seeds fell on rocky ground, where they did not have much soil, and they sprang up quickly, since they had no depth of soil. But when the sun rose, they were scorched; and since they had no root, they withered away. Other seeds fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked them. Other seeds fell on good soil and brought forth grain, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty." (Matthew 13:3b-8, NRSV)
