

Update from All Saints' Email to the Parish from The Rev. Simone Hurkmans

July 3, 2020

A very warm week comes to an end - no doubting it's summer out there. Hope you are keeping well and staying cool. I have heard that Fr. Chris and Blanche have started making the long drive to BC. Let's keep them in our prayers as they journey west.

Our fifth instalment of our Summer Sunday School is now up on the parish's Facebook page. This week, Barbara talks to us about Flames and Wind - how the Spirit came down on Christ's first disciples and how Jesus continues to be present to us today. Watch the video and join along in making the craft here:

Speaking of crafts, did you know that a small team of intrepid volunteers is planning an Online Bazaar for the fall? We are hoping to sell jams and jellies, themed gift baskets, crafts, masks and other items on our website. Get in touch with me if you'd like to help out or have an idea to share.

Have a lovely evening,

Simone+

"Suddenly a sound like the blowing of a violent wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where the disciples were sitting. They saw what seemed to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them." (Acts 2:2-3, NRSV)
