Well, it is a wee bit chillier outside as I stand in the Courtyard greeting those picking up items purchase in the Virtual Village Fair. On this date in 1784, three Scottish bishops laid hands on Samuel Seabury, making him the first Anglican to be consecrated for the office and work of a bishop in North America.

Today's prayer recalls the importance of this day:

Eternal God, you blessed your servant Samuel Seabury with the gift of perseverance to renew the Anglican inheritance in the churches of North America. Grant us unity in faith, steadfastness in hope, and constancy in love, that we may ever be true members of the body of your Son Jesus Christ; who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

While it is hard to believe that we are already halfway through November, it is even harder to believe that we are closing in on Christmas.

Take Care and be safe,

Chris
