

Update from All Saints'

Email to the Parish from The Venerable Christopher Dunn

17 December 2020

Time to share this week's Church School Video. This week Julie talks about the candle of Love for the Fourth Sunday of Advent, and she tells a wonderful story for Christmas. Ayla jumps in to help out with the creation of a lovely and colourful Manger "stained glass". Enjoy the video on our Facebook page at this link:

Tomorrow evening there is a very special National Celebration of Lessons and Carols Service from all across Canada at 8:00 p.m. It goes live on Friday evening but it can be watched anytime after that. Here is the link to the National Church Facebook page for information: www.facebook.com/canadiananglican/ or the link on the National Church Webpage: www.anglican.ca/lessonsandcarols

As we head in to this weekend and the Fourth Sunday of Advent, just a reminder that you can sign up now to attend one of the Christmas Services. As of the time of writing this email there are 12 spots left to attend the Christmas Eve at 4:00 p.m. service; there are 25 spots left to attend the Christmas Eve at 10:00 p.m. service; and there are 30 spots left to attend the Christmas Day at 10:00 a.m. service. All you need to do is go to our webpage at www.allsaintswestboro.com and you will find the links to the service registrations right on the first page. We will let you know when and if they are full, and we will be sending out Zoom links to all three services next week.

Our prayer for this evening:

"God of promise, you look with favour on the lowly, you scatter the proud and you fill the hungry. May we, like Mary, respond to your call and be obedient to your will; through Jesus Christ who is to come. Amen"

All the best of the season as you prepare to celebrate this year,

Chris
