

Update from All Saints'

Email to the Parish from The Venerable Christopher Dunn

16 January 2021

The snow is lovely this morning and the birds have been attacking our bird feeders; I am putting off going out to clean up the driveway for a while.

I have posted the latest Puppet Story video and I invite you to have a look at it. You will find it on our Facebook page at:

Our service for the Second Sunday after Epiphany is tomorrow morning at 9:30. The Bulletin for the service is in the attachment to this email. As you are aware we are now very limited in who can be physically present for the service but you are all invited to join over Zoom, or to follow us later when it is posted to the Facebook page. Tomorrow we hear Jesus calling and engaging with some of his first Disciples. Join us for the Service at 9:30 AM by clicking on this link:

On a financial note, if you normally use Offering Envelopes and are waiting to receive them because they are sitting at the back of the Church please let me know and I will have them mailed to you. As an alternative you can always use the e-transfer system which does not cost the Church anything and is safe and simple. To make E-Transfer donations just send an Interac E-Transfer from your financial institution to treasurer@allsaintswestboro.com. The message box should be used to indicate how you wish your donation to be recorded, for example, to what ministry your contribution should be directed. If you would like additional information, please contact Barbara Fisher, our Treasurer, at barbfisher41@gmail.com.

So a prayer for today:

"God of love, passionate and strong, tender and careful: watch over us and hold us all the days of our life; through Jesus Christ, Mary's child. Amen"

Take care and enjoy the fresh snow!

Chris
