

Update from All Saints' Email to the Parish from The Venerable Christopher Dunn

30 January 2021

Lots to let you know about on this cold Saturday morning at the end of January.

Julie has prepared the next Church School Video for us. This week Julie talks about being hopeful; God is with us even in challenging times. This weeks Story is about Jonah, the prophet of God who tried to run away. This week, Jamie helps with the craft—making a very colourful fish. You will find the link to our Facebook page with the Church School video here: www.facebook.com/allsaintswestboro/videos/256873802568142

I hope that you will join us tomorrow morning, Sunday January 31st, for our Church Service for the Fourth Sunday of Epiphany. Because we are doing the Service of the Word each week, the services are not very long; so you can spend just about half an hour in worship and praise. Here is a link to the PDF of the bulletin: <https://www.allsaintswestboro.com/wp-content/uploads/2021/01/31-January-2021-Epiphany-4.pdf>. You can join the service on Zoom tomorrow at 9:30 a.m. by clicking on this link at that time: <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/88272431313?pwd=MFRDMWwvMmdPYXIMRjBYQWtsSkw1UT09> (Meeting ID: 882 7243 1313 & Passcode: 267423)

In tomorrow`s email, I will also give you the details on our plan for the next Hymn Sing, which will take place on Tuesday, February 2nd, at 4:00 p.m. Tuesday is the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord, often called Candlemas. Watch for this Zoom link in tomorrow`s email.

The new February issue of Crosstalk, our Diocesan Newspaper, is now available. It includes an article about the youth backpack initiative, so I encourage you to have a look. You can find Crosstalk on our Website or through this link: www.ottawa.anglican.ca/images/Crosstalk/Feb-2021/Crosstalk-February-2021.pdf

A prayer for today:

Lord, help us to know ourselves and call us to answer and serve; through Jesus Christ, the Master of the Table. Amen

Take Care and stay warm and well.

Chris
