

Update from All Saints' Email to the Parish from The Venerable Christopher Dunn

31 January 2021

It has been a busy Sunday for the final day of January, and there are a number of links to share with you today.

Join us for the Service of the Word that was recorded this morning as we celebrated together on the Fourth Sunday of Epiphany. Today, we hear Mark tell us about the beginning of Jesus' public ministry and the visit to the Synagogue at Capernaum. I have added a couple of photographs during the Homily/Reflection to cover some technical video issues. The link to this mornings worship service can be found on our Facebook page through this link: www.facebook.com/allsaintswestboro/videos/307324164142620

I hope that you will join Edith, Simone, and me for the Hymn Sing on Tuesday, February 2nd. If anything, it will be a change on this "Groundhog Day" when every day just seems the same. It is a sing-along that will focus on the themes of finding stillness and centering, God's companionship, and assurance of God's presence in our world. We will sing both old favourites and new possibilities as we celebrate what we traditionally call Candlemas. If you have a nice candle at home, it might be good to join us in lighting one of these at the end of our gathering. On Wednesday, February 3rd, you can join Simone for this month's Bible on Tap. It starts at 7:00 p.m. and is BYOB—whatever you have in your own home. If you want to join in and you have not already received them from Simone, you can send me a note and I will send you the readings for the Bible on Tap Session.

A reminder that Thursday, February 4th, is the first evening of the Diocesan Book Study. The book is Richard Rohr's The Universal Christ. If you would like to get involved, you can let Simone know.

A prayer for this evening:

God of the dispossessed, you teach us to hunger for justice even when the weak are shut out and the powerful turn over in their beds: in the heat of our anger and the bitterness of our complaints, give us courage to protest, the persistence to pray and the heart to love; through Jesus Christ, the true judge. Amen.

Take care and be well

Chris
