

Update from All Saints'
Email to the Parish from The Venerable Christopher Dunn
17 March 2021

Happy St. Patrick`s Day everyone.

In tonight`s Evening Prayer, Jarrett reflects on our Lenten readings and the impact of St. Patrick on the lives of the people of Ireland and on us. You will find the service here: <https://www.allsaintswestboro.com/wp-content/uploads/2021/03/Evening-Prayer-for-Lent-17-March-2021.pdf>. The photos are from a trip that Blanche and I made to Ireland a few years ago. So, the prayer tonight is for St. Patrick, the patron saint of Ireland, who brought Christianity to the northern tribes of that country in the early fifth century:

O God, we thank you for Patrick, whom you took into your service, to bring within the freedom of your household those who once enslaved him. Encourage us through his example, that we may know your power made perfect in our weakness, and delight in serving others for the sake of him who became servant of all, your Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Take Care

Chris
