

Update from All Saints' Email to the Parish from The Venerable Christopher Dunn 3 March 2021

Yesterday was a very cold day, but the bright sunny skies allowed me to venture out with my camera once again in search of Snowy Owls. I am pleased to say that of the two I found, one certainly decided it was okay for me to take some photos.

So, in tonight's Evening Prayer Service, led by Jarrett Carty, you will see that I have included pictures of my very wise-looking Snowy Owl. Here is the link to the Service bulletin: <https://www.allsaintswestboro.com/wp-content/uploads/2021/03/Evening-Prayer-for-Lent-3-March-2021.pdf>. In tonight's service, Jarrett reflects on the reading from Jeremiah and the challenge to God's people and on John, Chapter 5, about the healing of the man at the Pool of Bethesda. I have also included photos I took a number of years ago, from the Archeological site of the Pool of Bethesda. You will find the Evening Prayer service on our Facebook page at this link: www.facebook.com/allsaintswestboro/videos/3747332012054189

Morning Prayer with Simone continues each day, Tuesday to Friday, at 9:00 am, and you can join at that time using this Zoom link: <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/8741442482?pwd=OEI4V090MjVhTmU3N1VkMysvTkdTUT09> (Meeting ID: 874 144 2482 & Passcode: 12345)

Today the Church remembers John and Charles Wesley, who launched the Methodist revival in the 18th-century Church of England. The prayer this evening recalls their ministry and our calling:

Lord God, you inspired John and Charles Wesley to thirst after true righteousness, and endowed them with eloquence in speech and song that the hearts and voices of many might testify to the work of Christ. Grant us, we pray, the power of your Spirit, to kindle anew in hearts grown cold the ardent love of Jesus Christ, who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Take care and be well,

Chris
