

Update from All Saints'
Email to the Parish from The Venerable Christopher Dunn
6 May 2021

On this lovely morning, I have just had a number of goldfinches and our cardinal fluttering around our backyard birdfeeders. Nature close at home!

In this week's Puppet Story video, we have Puppets for Mother's Day. Mary talks about her mother Anna and about being a mother—singing to children as mother birds sing to their young. I hope that you enjoy this video, apart from the singing; you will find it on our Facebook page at this link: www.facebook.com/allsaintswestboro/videos/885110375378817

Morning Prayer with Simone continues along. You can join her tomorrow morning at 9:00 (and each day from Tuesday to Friday) using this Zoom link: <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/8741442482?pwd=OEI4V090MjVhTmU3N1VkMysvTkdTUT09> (Meeting ID: 874 144 2482 & Passcode: 12345)

On Sunday, May 16th, we will celebrate Jerusalem Sunday, and I am pleased to let you know that we will have our retired Bishop, John Chapman, with us to share a Homily and reflection on Jerusalem.

On Wednesday, May 19th, at 7:00 pm, we invite you to join Simone and Debbie for an evening of trivia! Participate on your own or as a team. You can invite friends and family to join in too. We'll have quiz questions for every age, level, and interest; so be sure to include all (willing) members of your household. Watch for the Zoom link in an upcoming email.

Today is the day that the Church recalls St. John the Apostle and Evangelist, a Galilean fisherman who was called with his brother James and followed Jesus to become “a fisher for people.”

Our prayer for today:

Shed upon your Church, O Lord, the brightness of your light, that we being illumined by the teaching of your apostle and evangelist John, may walk in the light of your truth, and come at last to the fullness of eternal life; through Jesus our Lord. Amen

Take care, enjoy the day, and stay well

Chris
