

Update from All Saints'
Email to the Parish from The Venerable Christopher Dunn
17 July 2021

I trust that your summer is looking better now that things are opening up a little more. For now, the Church remains in Amber restrictions, but this will be our second Sunday with In-Person worship. I am looking forward to seeing some that I have not seen for some time as we have 33 registered to attend tomorrow.

In this week's Summer Sunday School Video, Julie shares the Creation story from the Algonquin people about Glooscap, called "How Summer was brought into Winter's House." Following the story, Julie demonstrates the making of a summer fairy. You will find the video on our Parish Facebook page at this link: www.facebook.com/allsaintswestboro/videos/222220406426403

Tomorrow, Sunday July 18th, we will celebrate the Eighth Sunday after Pentecost at 9:30 am. I know that we had some technical issues with the Zoom link last week, and I believe I have sorted out what went wrong; so if you are not joining us in-person you can still be with us over Zoom. Here is a pdf copy of the bulletin for the service: <https://www.allsaintswestboro.com/wp-content/uploads/2021/07/18-July-2021-Eighth-Sunday-after-Pentecost.pdf>.

If you are coming to the Church, please bring water or coffee because it may be humid in the Church. If you are joining us over Zoom, here is the link for tomorrow morning: <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/82843017726?pwd=bXFPL1ZkbFIkVWx4YmNnWEhCTys1QT09> (Meeting ID: 828 4301 7726 & Passcode: 342646)

Following the service we will gather briefly and socially-distanced in the Courtyard. We will have Drive-by Communion, starting at 11:00 am tomorrow, at the Madison Avenue parking lot door. We had a few people last week, so we will see how it goes tomorrow.

A prayer for today:

God of all mercy, your Son proclaimed good news to the poor, release to the captives, and freedom to the oppressed: anoint us with your Holy Spirit, so that all people may be free to praise you in Christ our Lord. Amen

Have a great weekend and take care,

Chris
