

Update from All Saints'
Email to the Parish from The Venerable Christopher Dunn
25 July 2021

Well, it has been a lovely Sunday morning; an opportunity to see some people in person that I have not seen for many months. And, praise God, the technology worked!

I have now posted the Video of our Eucharist for the Ninth Sunday after Pentecost. This week, we hear the story of Elisha feeding the 100 with 20 barley loaves and Jesus feeding the 5,000 with five barley loaves and two fish. Out of scarcity, comes abundance. You will find the video on our Parish Facebook page at this link: www.facebook.com/allsaintswestboro/videos/555075702298275

Julie and Helen continue to offer Morning Prayer on Tuesday and Thursday mornings at 9:00 am. For more information or if you would like to join in, please contact Helen at office@allsaintswestboro.com.

A reminder that if you are planning to join us next Sunday morning, at 9:30, in the Church please remember to register. The registration opens tomorrow (Monday), at 9:00 am, and concludes at 12:00 noon on Friday. You can register through the website at this link: www.allsaintswestboro.com/register-for-sunday-service/

A prayer for today, on the Feast of St. James the Apostle, who is usually described in the Gospels as “the brother of John” but is also known as James “the Greater” in order to distinguish him from two other New Testament figures of the same name. He was a Galilean fisherman, and with his brother John he left his home and his trade in obedience to the call of Jesus:

Almighty God, we remember today your servant James, the first apostle to give his life for faith in Jesus Christ. Pour out on all your people that spirit of self-denying service which is the mark of true leadership. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ the Lord. Amen

Have a great week everyone, Chris
