

Update from All Saints' Email to the Parish from The Venerable Christopher Dunn 1 August 2021

An interesting morning at Church and the Coffee Hour following the service with its far-reaching discussion.

If you were unable to join us for our Worship service this morning, on the Tenth Sunday after Pentecost, you will now find the video on our Parish Facebook page. We continue to hear Jesus' reflection on the Bread of Life. Here is the link to the video: www.facebook.com/allsaintswestboro/videos/265728168651192

So, there is Morning Prayer on Tuesday and Thursday Mornings this week at 9:00. For more information or if you would like to join in, please contact Helen at office@allsaintswestboro.com.

On Wednesday:

- We gather for the mid-week Eucharist in the Church, at 10:30 am. No registration is required for this service, but we will take your information at the door.
- At 7:00 pm, I invite you to join me for Bible on Tap over Zoom. We will discuss the readings for the following Sunday and check in to see how everyone's summer is going. If you would like me to send you the reading material for Bible on Tap, please let me know, The Zoom link for Wednesday evening at 7:00 is: <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/87104219633?pwd=OVNLZTEzbGNlUEUwcGFJNWxDSE5aUT09> (Meeting ID: 871 0421 9633 & Passcode: 148489)

If you would like to register for In-Person attendance next Sunday morning, as we move into Yellow Stage, you can do so starting Monday morning at 9:00 am (registration will be open until 12:00 noon on Friday). Yellow Stage means that we will be able to sing together while wearing masks, and we will be sharing the Common Cup for those who wish to receive Communion in both kinds. A prayer for today:

God, whose word is engrained in all we eat and drink: free us from the greed that destroys the roots of life; teach us to eat the living bread in whom all hungers are satisfied by the life that gives of itself and is never sapped, Jesus Christ, the living Word. Amen

Take care and enjoy the day,

Chris
