

Update from All Saints'
Email to the Parish from The Venerable Christopher Dunn
22 August 2021

Well, it was certainly a warm morning in the Church, but it was lovely to see a good group of in-person worshippers. It is interesting to see that we are currently running about the same number of people in-person and on Zoom.

You will now find the recording of this morning's Eucharist for the Thirteenth Sunday after Pentecost, up on our Parish Facebook page. Today we hear the difficult sayings of Jesus; Who will you choose to follow this day? As we go forward over the time that I am on holidays, you will find that the recordings will still be placed on the Facebook page and on our website, but it may not happen until the early evening some times. So, if you missed the service, here you are— join in the worship and sing along! The link is: www.facebook.com/allsaintswestboro/videos/169128041973911

A reminder that this is the final week that Helen and Julie will be leading Morning Prayer on Tuesday and Thursday Morning at 9:00 am. Contact Helen (office@allsaintswestboro.com) if you want to join in.

The Wednesday Eucharist in the Church will continue each week at 10:30 am. Bishop John Chapman will be the celebrant on both Wednesday and Sunday mornings until the end of September. This means that I know you are in very good hands. While I am away, Helen in the office will be sending out the email updates and information that you need. I am hoping that I have given her all the email addresses to make this possible but if you do not see an email from office@allsaintswestboro.com on Thursdays and on Saturdays then please email her and let her know. The link to the Sunday service is now the same each week and the details about how to register for in person worship are the same each week. If you run into problems, just go our Parish website www.allsaintswestboro.com for the information that you need.

A prayer for today:

Give us courage to hope, and to risk disappointment. Teach us to pray expectantly, and when our prayers seem to fail, bring us to pray again and again; for you are our God, who acts and will act again. Amen.

My thanks to everyone that has sent me their greetings and best wishes.

Take care while I am away,

Chris
