

Update from All Saints'
Email to the Parish from The Venerable Christopher Dunn
16 October 2021

When we have to make a decision based on a weather forecast three days ahead of an event we always wonder whether we will be right - all I can say is our flooded backyard is probably a sign this morning that cancelling the outdoor sale was correct.

Tomorrow morning we will gather for in-person worship and over Zoom for the Twenty-first Sunday after Pentecost. Because of the cancellation of the sale today we will have a table at the back of the Church selling some Baking, Church Calendars and PWRDF Christmas Cards. I have attached the bulletin in PDF to this email. If you are joining us by Zoom the link for the service at 9:30 a.m. is:

I have been asked by Peter Robertson to share the following note about the New-to-You Shop. "The New-to-You Shop, which is currently closed, is overwhelmed with dropped-off donations, and asks that you hold off your donations until the Shop reopens and has been able to clear the backlog of donations. There's just not enough space for everything!" Unfortunately we are still not sure when we will be able to reopen.

So a prayer for today:

"Holy God, give us such trust in your sure purposes, that we measure our lives not by what we have done or failed to do, by our faithfulness to you. Amen"

Stay dry out there and take care,

Chris
