

Update from All Saints'
Email to the Parish from The Venerable Christopher Dunn

Are you ready for the Blessing of the Animals? Zoe is getting excited but is a little worried about the rain

Tomorrow, we gather for worship on the Nineteenth Sunday after Pentecost for our annual Blessing of the Animals Service. For those who have registered to attend the service in-person we gather at 9:30 am. We look forward to seeing our family pets at the service; and, while we have to continue to wear our masks and keep our social distance, I am sure that the animals will find ways to greet each other (a six foot leash really works well then). Here is a link to the bulletin: <https://www.allsaintswestboro.com/wp-content/uploads/2021/10/3-October-2021-Blessing-of-the-Animals-19th-Sunday-after-Pentecost.pdf>. If you are unable to be present in-person we will be Zooming the service as usual, and you can join us using this link: <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/83689498396> (Meeting ID: 836 8949 8396)

Following the service tomorrow, we will gather in the Courtyard at 10:45 am, to meet with members of First United and share in the Blessing of the Animals. We will, of course, continue to wear our masks outside and keep our social distance; but it will be great to welcome everyone together.

So, a prayer for today:

Almighty God, fount of all wisdom, crown of all knowledge; give us eyes to see and minds to understand your marvellous works, that we may know you through your handiwork and use your creations to your glory. Amen.

Take care and stay well,

Chris
