

Update from All Saints'
Email to the Parish from The Venerable Christopher Dunn
30 October 2021

On this rainy last weekend of October I can report that we have now completed another Synod Meeting of the Diocese. Did you know that this is the 125th Anniversary of the Diocese of Ottawa?

So tomorrow morning we will gather at 9:30 a.m. for worship on the Twenty-third Sunday after Pentecost, and All Hallows Eve (or the eve of All Saints' Day which is the origin of that name). We are at our capacity for registrations to attend the in-person worship so I would ask that if you have registered and you are not able to join us in-person to please let me know as soon as possible. There will be five Baptisms tomorrow, four children and one adult, so I invite your prayers this weekend for the candidates. I have attached the bulletin in the PDF with this email and you can join us on Zoom for the service at 9:30 a.m. using this link:

So a prayer for today:

“Save us, Jesus, from hurrying away, because we do not wish to help, because we know not how to help, because we dare not. Inspire us to use our lives serving one another. Amen.”

Take Care and be safe this weekend – especially if you are out and about trick or treating!
