

Update from All Saints'
Email to the Parish from The Venerable Christopher Dunn
12 December 2021

I trust that you avoided the icy patches out there today. If you are watching the Grey Cup tonight, I hope that your team is winning (oh wait, they are tied at the moment).

This morning we celebrated the Third Sunday of Advent—traditionally called Gaudete Sunday. Gaudete is Latin for “Rejoice,” and the pink candle is used reminding us of the great Joy that we both expect and experience. If you were unable to join us for the service or participate on Zoom, you will find the recording up on our Facebook page at this link: www.facebook.com/allsaintswestboro/videos/705681507063170

A reminder that on Wednesday morning we have our mid-week service, at 10:30 am, in the Church. This is still the one service that we do not require vaccination certificates for attendance.

Next Sunday, December 19th, at 4:30 pm, we will hold our annual “Blue Christmas” Service, and we will be providing a Zoom link to that service for those who are unable to join us for the service in-person. I will send out the link on Thursday and Saturday.

So, a prayer for this evening:

Praise and honour to you living God for John the Baptist, and for all those voices crying in the wilderness who prepare your way. May we listen when a prophet speaks your word, and obey. Amen

Take Care and have a great week,

Chris
