

Update from All Saints'
Email to the Parish from The Venerable Christopher Dunn
10 February 2022

Are you enjoying the warmer weather? I have actually switched to a lighter jacket. I am sure that it is not doing the canal much good at this point, but colder weather on the weekend should help with that.

We have now returned to in-person Church School; but we thought, for a few weeks, we would also include a weekly special story for the children (and the adults that love them as well). This week, Steve Sibbald shares a wonderful Children's story entitled, "Sometimes Everything Feels Just Right," as we prepare this Sunday to hear Luke's version of the Sermon on the Plain. You will find it on the Parish Facebook page at this link: www.facebook.com/allsaintswestboro/videos/950278682543480/

Tomorrow morning (Friday), and on Monday and Friday mornings next week, join Helen and Julie for Morning Prayer at 9:00 am. For more information and for the Zoom link, please contact Helen in the office (office@allsaintswestboro.com).

On Sunday morning, we will gather in-person for the Eucharist on the Sixth Sunday after Epiphany at 8:00 am and 9:30 am. Of course, we will also have the 9:30 service on Zoom.

On Wednesdays, we gather for our Mid-Week Eucharist, at 10:30 am, in the Church, and everyone is invited to join in.

A prayer for today:

Holy God, grant us the beginning of wisdom and love to cast out every fear: that we may grow more brave, more ready to hear, more ready to obey. Amen.

Take care and stay well,

Chris
