

Update from All Saints'
Email to the Parish from The Venerable Christopher Dunn
24 March 2022

Today is the celebration of the Nativity of the Blessed Blanche—blessed because she puts up with me. That's right, if you translate that phrase, you will see that today is Blanche's birthday and we are off to dinner shortly.

This Sunday, we will celebrate the Fourth Sunday of Lent at the 8:00 and 9:30 am services. During the 9:30 service, Julie Newlands, Barbara Robertson, and Chris Kirch will be gathering with all our young Servers who have helped out before the COVID shutdown. This will be a re-training session so that we can get back into the swing. It will also be an opportunity to see how short their white robes are on each of them and do some new fitting. In the month of May, we will begin training those who wish to join the young Servers guild.

Tomorrow morning (Friday), and on Monday and Friday mornings next week, join Helen and Julie for Morning Prayer at 9:00 am. Contact Helen in the office (office@allsaintswestboro.com) if you need the Zoom link.

The New-to-You shop has been seeing a slow return to engagement with the community; so if you are in the area, pop in and check out how they are doing on Saturdays and Wednesdays between 9:30 am and 2:30 pm. You will of course need to wear your mask while you are in the building.

Our Wednesday morning Eucharist continues to be held in the Church at 10:30 am. We use the same readings from Sunday mornings, and a few hymns.

A prayer for today:

Loving God, thank you for welcoming us to your wonderful feast. Help us to welcome others too. Amen.

Take Care and have a great weekend,

Chris
