8:00 am—Said Eucharist

9:30 am—Sung Eucharist

The Ven. Christopher Dunn

The Rev. Chung Yan Lam

The Rev. Deacon Jarrett Carty

Music: Edith Troup

Children and Youth: Julie Newlands

While the wearing of masks is no longer required, it is encouraged.

Please Note: The 9:30 service is being broadcast on Zoom and recorded; if you attend in-person you may appear on camera and in the recording.

Officiant: Dear friends, we gather on the ancestral territory of the Anishnaabeg Algonquin people, the traditional stewards of the lands and waters on which we meet.

All: May we walk gently together on this land, seeking renewed relationship based on honour, respect, and peace.

Opening Hymn: Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty #1

Holy, holy, holy, Lord God almighty!
Early in the morning our song shall rise to thee;
holy, holy, holy, merciful and mighty,
God in three persons, blessed Trinity!

Holy, holy, holy! All the saints adore thee, casting down their golden crowns around the glassy sea;
cherubim and seraphim falling down before thee, which wert, and art, and evermore shalt be.

Holy, holy, holy! Though the darkness hide thee, though our sinful human gaze thy glory may not see,
only thou art holy; there is none beside thee,
perfect in power, in love, and purity.

Holy, holy, holy, Lord God almighty!
All thy works shall praise thy name
in earth and sky and sea;
holy, holy, holy, merciful and mighty,
God in three persons, blessed Trinity!

Children's Talk

(Please send the children to the front during the last verse of the Opening Hymn. The Children are invited to join the Church School following the talk.)

Officiant: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

All: And also with you.

Officiant: O Holy Trinity, One God in Three Persons,

All: we behold in the splendour of creation your majesty and our responsibility.

One: we behold in the face of Jesus Christ your divinity and our humanity.

All: we behold in the Spirit of truth your glory and our calling.

Officiant: Bound to you forever,

All: we will ever praise your name!

Officiant: Almighty God,

All: to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hidden. Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Officiant: Holy and undivided Trinity,

All: you are an eternal harmony of gift and response: through the uncreated Word and the Spirit of truth embrace us and all creation in your extravagant love; through the Wisdom of God, who raises her voice to call us to life. Amen.

The First Reading is from Proverbs (8:1-4, 22-31)

Does not wisdom call, and does not understanding raise her voice? On the heights, beside the way, at the crossroads she takes her stand; beside the gates in front of the town, at the entrance of the portals she cries out: "To you, O people, I call, and my cry is to all that live. The Lord created me at the beginning of his work, the first of his acts of long ago. Ages ago I was set up, at the first, before the beginning of the earth. When there were no depths I was brought forth, when there were no springs abounding with water. Before the mountains had been shaped, before the hills, I was brought forth—then he had not yet made earth and fields, or the world's first bits of soil. When he established the heavens, I was there, when he drew a circle on the face of the deep, when he made firm the skies above, when he established the fountains of the deep, when he assigned to the sea its limit, so that the waters might not transgress his command, when he marked out the foundations of the earth, then I was beside him, like a master worker; and I was daily his delight, rejoicing before him always, rejoicing in his inhabited world and delighting in the human race.”

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to the church.

All: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 8: Lord, Our Lord, Your Glorious Name (tune #370)

Lord, our Lord, your glorious name
all your wondrous works proclaim;
in the heav'ns with radiant signs evermore your glory shines.

Infant voices chant your praise, telling of your glorious ways;
weakest means work out your will,
mighty enemies to still.

Moon and stars in shining height nightly tell their Maker's might;
when I view the heav'ns afar, then I know how small we are.

Who are we that we should share in your love and tender care—raised to an exalted height, crowned with honour in your sight!

With dominion crowned, we stand o'er the creatures of your hand;
all to us subjection yield,
in the sea and air and field.

Lord, our Lord, your glorious name
all your wondrous works proclaim;
yours the name of matchless worth, excellent in all the earth.

The Second Reading is from Romans (5:1-5)

Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to the church.

All: Thanks be to God.

Gradual Hymn: Creator, Companion, Comforter (tune #3)

God of Creation Gentle life-giver Present at birth, and all through our days
Author of sunrise
Song in the night sky Here in this place, we offer our praise

Jesus, Companion teacher and healer friend of the grieving, suffering, the poor

Stand with your people whisper among us promise of mercy goodness for all

Spirit of Comfort blow through Creation stir up new life, breathe
peace through our world Healer of hearts, and hope for tomorrow weave all our sorrows into new dawn

Here we give thanks for life in its fullness blessings received your gifts to us all Make us a people filled with compassion selflessly giving serving your world

Reader: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

Reader: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
according to John (16:12-15)

All: Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Jesus said, "I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you."

Reader: The Gospel of Christ.

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Homily

Officiant: Let us make an affirmation of faith, as we say,

All: I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayers of the People

One: Oh, most holy Trinity, we bless you for bringing us into communion with you. Lord God, you are more than we can know or name, yet we call on you again and again. Your steadfast love surrounds us all our days wherever we may be. We ask that you hear the prayers of your people for our world as we say together: "Lord in your mercy,

All: hear our prayer."

One: We come before you in thanksgiving for all the gifts that you have given that delight us so much: for the beauty of this season, for the lives of those who bless us beyond their knowing, for this community of faith by which we are nurtured and challenged: for opportunities to serve you by serving others, for goals accomplished and for the gift of life granted yet again today. Lord in your mercy,

All: hear our prayer.

One: We come before you humbly and hopeful in need. We pray for those who are suffering today because of illness in mind, body, or spirit. We pray for those grieving a loss; for those whose livelihood is precarious. Help us to find the will and the way towards the common good. We pray especially for those who have asked for our prayers:

All: Betty-Joan (Hagerman); Cheryl (McTeer); Michele (Pollesel); Randy (Brown); Charlie (Cuffari); Barbara (Hill); Helen (Miller); Laura (DesClouds); Lois (Frazier-Nagel); Sue (Wise); Sarah (Vedell); Aneesa (Yonan); Shari (Rathwell); Viola (Martin); Anji (Carter); Valerie (Corbin); Brian (Taylor); Peter (Frazier); Michael (Frazier); Alana (Andrews); Kevin (Andrews); Thelma (Mills); Sheila (Howe); Etienne (Hainzelin)

One: and for those we name silently or aloud. . . . Lord in your mercy,

All: hear our prayer.

One: We pray for our Church leaders and for all people of faith. In our Anglican communion, we pray for Linda, our Primate; Anne, our Metropolitan; Sidney, our Interim Indigenous Bishop; Shane, our Bishop; Chris, Chung Yan, and Jarrett, our clergy; and for all who hold leadership positions here at All Saints'. May the Spirit of Truth guide them as they lead all people to grow in the truth and wholeness promised by Christ. Lord in your mercy,

All: hear our prayer.

One: We pray for those who are suffering through war and violence, hatred, and prejudice particularly the people of Ukraine, Afghanistan, and in so many African countries. We pray for persons in our world whose basic human rights are denied. May the leaders of nations be guided in wisdom to uphold the dignity of each person, regardless of their faith, race, or status. Lord in your mercy,

All: hear our prayer.

One: We remember those who have died, especially those we name silently or aloud Bless those who mourn their passing and give them peace in the days ahead. Lord in your mercy,

All: hear our prayer.

One: Holy God, you continue to love us despite the harm that we do to our world and to each other. Help us to live in ways that restore true communion until we greet with joy the kingdom you are bringing. In Christ Jesus we pray

All: Amen

Officiant: Dear friends in Christ, God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy. God welcomes sinners and invites us to the table. Let us confess our sins, confident in God's forgiveness.

Silence is kept

Officiant: Most merciful God,

All: we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

Officiant: Almighty God have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in eternal life; through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

Officiant: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

All: And also with you.

When exchanging the Peace share a sign of peace with others around you by other means such as bowing or waving.

Offertory Hymn: Come, Holy Spirit, Come

(Words by Michael Forster; tune CP#388)

Come, Holy Spirit, come! In flame our souls with love, transforming every heart and home with wisdom from above.

Let none of us despise
the humble path Christ trod, but choose, to shame the worldly wise, the foolishness of God.

All-knowing Spirit, prove the poverty of pride,
by knowledge of the Father's love in Jesus crucified.
And grant us faith to know the glory of that sign,
and in our very lives to show the marks of love divine.

Come with the gift to heal the wounds of guilt and fear, and to oppression's face reveal the kingdom drawing near.

Where chaos longs to reign, descend, O holy Dove, and free us all to work again the miracles of love.

Spirit of truth, arise; inspire the prophet's voice:
expose to scorn the tyrant's lies, and bid the poor rejoice.
O Spirit, clear our sight, all prejudice remove,
and help us to discern the right, and covet only love.

Give us the tongues to speak the word of love and grace to rich and poor, to strong and weak, in every time and place.

Enable us to hear the words that others bring, interpreting with open ear the special song they sing.

Come, Holy Spirit, dance within our hearts today,
our earthbound spirits to entrance, our mortal fears allay.
And teach us to desire all other things above,
that self-consuming holy fire, the perfect gift of love.

Officiant: Living God,

All: receive all we offer you this day. Grant that hearing your word and responding to your Spirit, we may share in your divine life. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ the Lord.
Amen.

Officiant: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

Officiant: Lift up your hearts.

All: We lift them to the Lord.

Officiant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Officiant: Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of heaven and earth; we give you thanks and praise, because, in the mystery you disclose to us, you reveal your glory as the glory of your Son and the Holy Spirit: three persons equal in majesty, undivided in splendour, yet one Lord, one God,
ever to be adored in your everlasting glory.
Therefore with all the company of heaven we raise our voices to proclaim the glory of your name.

All: Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

#719 Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Officiant: We give thanks to you, Lord our God, for the goodness and love you have made known to us in creation; in calling Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Saviour and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life. On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, a death he freely accepted, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: this is my body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." Therefore, according to his command,

All: we remember his death, we proclaim his resurrection, we await his coming in glory;

Officiant: and we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine. We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts, that they may be the sacrament of the body of Christ and his blood of the new covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we, made acceptable in him, may be sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, reconcile all things in Christ, and make them new, and bring us to that city of light where you dwell with all your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation; by whom,

and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honour and glory are yours, almighty God, now and for ever.

All: Amen.

Officiant: And now, as our Saviour Christ has taught us, we sing,

All: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours now and for ever. Amen.

Officiant: "I am the bread which has come down from heaven," says the Lord.

All: Give us this bread for ever.

Officiant: "I am the vine, you are the branches."

All: May we dwell in him, as he lives in us.

Officiant: The gifts of God for the people of God.

All: Thanks be to God.

*If you are unable to receive the wheat wafer, a rice wafer is available. While it is fully sufficient to receive in one kind, just the bread, the Common Cup is available for those who wish to receive. Please Note: Intinction is not allowed.

Musical Interlude

Officiant: Almighty and eternal God,

All: may we who have received this eucharist worship you in all we do, and proclaim the glory of your majesty. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ the Lord. Amen.

Officiant: Glory to God,

All: whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine. Glory to God from generation to generation, in the Church and in Christ Jesus, for ever and ever. Amen.

Officiant: Go out this day participating in the life of the triune God.

All: We will honour mutuality, live in equality and justice, and celebrate the amazing diversity by which our communion is enriched.

Officiant: And the blessing

Closing Hymn: How Great Thou Art

#423

O Lord my God, when I in awesome wonder consider all the works thy hand hath made,
I see the stars, I hear the mighty thunder, thy power throughout the universe displayed.

Refrain:

*Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee:
how great thou art, how great thou art!*

*Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee:
how great thou art, how great thou art!*

When through the woods and forest glades I wander,
I hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees;
when I look down from lofty mountain grandeur and hear the brook and feel the gentle breeze; *Refrain

But when I think that God, his Son not sparing, sent him to die, I scarce can take it in,
that on the cross, my burden gladly bearing,
he bled and died to take away my sin; *Refrain

When Christ shall come, with shout of acclamation and claim his own, what joy shall fill my heart!
Then I shall bow in humble adoration and there proclaim, "My God, how great thou art!"

Refrain

DM: Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.
All: Thanks be to God.
