Third Sunday after Pentecost

June 26th, 2022

8:00 am—Said Eucharist

9:30 am—Sung Eucharist

The Ven. Christopher Dunn

The Rev. Chung Yan Lam

The Rev. Deacon Jarrett Carty

Music: Edith Troup

Children and Youth: Julie Newlands

While the wearing of masks is no longer required, it is encouraged.

Please Note: The 9:30 service is being broadcast on Zoom and recorded; if you attend in-person you may appear on camera and in the recording.

Officiant: Dear friends, we gather on the ancestral territory of the Anishnaabeg Algonquin people, the traditional stewards of the lands and waters on which we meet.

All: May we walk gently together on this land, seeking renewed relationship based on honour, respect, and peace.

Opening Hymn: Will You Come and Follow Me #430

Will you come and follow me
if I but call your name?
Will you go where you don't know
and never be the same?
Will you let my love be shown,
will you let my name be known,
will you let my life be grown
in you and you in me?
Will you leave yourself behind
if I but call your name?
Will you care for cruel and kind
and never be the same?
Will you risk the hostile stare should your life attract or scare?
Will you let me answer prayer
in you and you in me?
Will you let the blinded see
if I but call your name?
Will you set the prisoners free
and never be the same?
Will you kiss the leper clean and do such as this unseen, and admit to what I mean
in you and you in me?

Will you love the “you” you hide
if I but call your name?
Will you quell the fear inside
and never be the same?
Will you use the faith you’ve found to reshape the world around,
through my sight and touch and sound
in you and you in me?

Lord, your summons echoes true
when you but call my name.
Let me turn and follow you
and never be the same.
In your company I’ll go where your love and footsteps show.
Thus I’ll move and live and grow
in you and you in me.

Children’s Talk

(Please send the children to the front during the last verse of the Opening Hymn. The Children are invited to join the Church School following the talk.)

Officiant: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

All: And also with you.

Officiant: Jesus calls to the crowds with warnings, to the converts to follow him, to the resisters with parables of rejection, to you: “Proclaim the kingdom of God.”

All: And the people answer: Thanks be to God for life and health and all goodness.

Officiant: Almighty God,

All: to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hidden. Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Officiant: God, you set us free in Jesus Christ.

All: Grant that we may live gracefully in this freedom without selfishness or arrogance, becoming servants through love to the freedom of the gospel for the sake of your reign. Amen.

The First Reading is from 1 Kings (19:15-16, 19-21)

Then the Lord said to Elijah, "Go, return on your way to the wilderness of Damascus; when you arrive, you shall anoint Hazael as king over Aram. Also you shall anoint Jehu son of Nimshi as king over Israel; and you shall anoint Elisha son of Shaphat of Abel-meholah as prophet in your place." So he set out from there, and found Elisha son of Shaphat, who was plowing. There were twelve yoke of oxen ahead of him, and he was with the twelfth. Elijah passed by him and threw his mantle over him. He left the oxen, ran after Elijah, and said, "Let me kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow you." Then Elijah said to him, "Go back again; for what have I done to you?" He returned from following him, took the yoke of oxen, and slaughtered them; using the equipment from the oxen, he boiled their flesh, and gave it to the people, and they ate. Then he set out and followed Elijah, and became his servant.

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to the church.

All: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 16

Officiant: Protect me, O God, for I take refuge in you;

All I have said to the Lord, "You are my Lord, my good above all other."

Officiant: All my delight is upon the godly that are in the land,

All upon those who are noble among the people.

Officiant: But those who run after other gods
All shall have their troubles multiplied.

Officiant: Their libations of blood I will not offer,
All nor take the names of their gods upon my lips.

Officiant: O Lord, you are my portion and my cup;
All it is you who uphold my lot.

Officiant: My boundaries enclose a pleasant land;
All indeed, I have a goodly heritage.

Officiant: I will bless the Lord who gives me counsel;
All my heart teaches me, night after night.

Officiant: I have set the Lord always before me;
All because you are at my side I shall not fall.

Officiant: My heart, therefore, is glad, and my spirit rejoices;
All my body also shall rest in hope.

Officiant: For you will not abandon me to the grave,
All nor let your holy one see the Pit.

Officiant: You will show me the path of life;
All in your presence there is fullness of joy, and in your hand are pleasures for evermore.

The Second Reading is from Galatians (5:1, 13-25)

For freedom Christ has set us free. Stand firm, therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery. For you were called to freedom, brothers and sisters; only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for self-indulgence, but through love become slaves to one another. For the whole law is summed up in a single commandment, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." If, however, you bite and devour one another, take care that you are not consumed by one another. Live by the Spirit, I say, and do not gratify the desires of the flesh. For what the flesh desires is opposed to the Spirit, and what the Spirit desires is opposed to the flesh; for these are opposed to each other, to prevent you from doing what you want. But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not subject to the law. Now the works of the flesh are obvious: fornication, impurity, licentiousness, idolatry, sorcery, enmities, strife, jealousy, anger, quarrels, dissensions, factions, envy, drunkenness, carousing, and things like these. I am warning you, as I warned you before: those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God. By contrast, the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. There is no law against such things. And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. If we live by the Spirit, let us also be guided by the Spirit.

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to the church.

All: Thanks be to God.

Gradual Hymn: Spirit of the Living God

#647

Spirit of the living God,
fall afresh on me;
Spirit of the living God,
fall afresh on me;
break me, melt me, mould me, fill me—
Spirit of the living God,
fall afresh on me!

Spirit of the living God,
move among us all;
make us one in heart and mind,
make us one in love:
humble, caring, selfless, sharing—
Spirit of the living God,
fill our lives with love!

Reader: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

Reader: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke (9:51-62)

All: Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

When the days drew near for him to be taken up, he set his face to go to Jerusalem. And he sent messengers ahead of him. On their way they entered a village of the Samaritans to make ready for him; but they did not receive him, because his face was set toward Jerusalem. When his disciples James and John saw it, they said, "Lord, do you want us to command fire to come down from heaven and consume them?" But he turned and rebuked them. Then they went on to another village. As they were going along the road, someone said to him, "I will follow you wherever you go." And Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head." To another he said, "Follow me." But he said, "Lord, first let me go and bury my father." But Jesus said to him, "Let the dead bury their own dead; but as for you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God." Another said, "I will follow you, Lord; but let me first say farewell to those at my home." Jesus said to him, "No one who puts a hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God."

Reader: The Gospel of Christ.

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Homily

Officiant: Let us make an affirmation of faith, as we say,

All: You, O God, are supreme and holy. You create our world and give us life. Your purpose overarches everything we do. You have always been with us. You are God.

You, O God, are infinitely generous, good beyond all measure. You came to us before we came to you. You have revealed and proved your love for us in Jesus the Christ, who lived and died and rose again. You are with us now. You are God.

You, O God, are Holy Spirit. You empower us to be your gospel in the world. You reconcile and heal; you overcome death. You are our God. We worship you.

Prayers of the People

One: Today we pray in Jesus' name for the church, the world and all who are in need saying, "Hear us O God,

All: your mercy is great."

One: We pray for the whole Church. In Canada, we pray for Linda, our Primate; Anne, our Metropolitan; Sidney, our Interim Indigenous Bishop; Shane, our Bishop; Chris, Chung Yan, and Jarrett, our clergy. We pray also for Brian, Pastor of First United. May their ministries be fulfilling to them and a blessing to all to whom they minister. Hear us O God,

All: your mercy is great.

One: We pray for all those who are affected by the cruelty of others, for those displaced by invasion, for the wounded both physically and mentally that they may be comforted by your love, and for the hope of peace ahead. Bless them and all who have needs only you know. Hear us O God,

All: your mercy is great.

One: At this time, let us remember those who have asked us to pray for them:

All: Betty-Joan (Hagerman); Cheryl (McTeer); Michele (Pollesel); Randy (Brown); Charlie (Cuffari); Barbara (Hill); Helen (Miller); Laura (DesClouds); Lois (Frazier-Nagel); Sue (Wise); Sarah (Vedell); Aneesa (Yonan); Shari (Rathwell); Viola (Martin); Anji (Carter); Brian (Taylor); Peter (Frazier); Michael (Frazier); Alana (Andrews);

Kevin (Andrews); Thelma (Mills); Sheila (Howe);
Etienne (Hainzelin)

One: and for those we name silently or aloud. . . . Be present with them, O Lord, whatever their needs may be. We remember those who have died, especially those we name silently or aloud Hear us O God,

All: your mercy is great.

One: In the scripture reading today, we learn that the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. May we strive to make these values part of our lives each day. Turn our hearts, Holy One, to respect and honour those who are not like us; let us see in peoples of every nation what we have in common and strive together to promote peace and harmony. Hear us O God,

All: your mercy is great.

One: Bless our church family and grant that as we continue on our pilgrimage of life that we all seek to serve you and our community giving of our time and talents Hear us O God,

All: your mercy is great. Amen

Officiant: Dear friends in Christ, God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy. God welcomes sinners and invites us to the table. Let us confess our sins, confident in God's forgiveness.

Silence is kept

Officiant: Most merciful God,

All: we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

Officiant: Almighty God have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in eternal life; through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

Officiant: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

All: And also with you.

When exchanging the Peace share a sign of peace with others around you by other means such as bowing or waving.

Offertory Hymn: Take My Life, and Let It Be

#435

Take my life, and let it be consecrated, Lord, to thee;
take my moments and my days,
let them flow in ceaseless praise.

Take my hands, and let them move
at the impulse of thy love;
take my feet, and let them be swift and purposeful for thee.

Take my lips, and let them be filled with messages from thee;
take my intellect, and use every power as thou shalt choose.

Take my will, and make it thine;
it shall be no longer mine;
take my heart, it is thine own;
it shall be thy royal throne.

Take my love, my Lord, I pour at thy feet its treasure store;
take myself, and I will be ever, only, all for thee.

Officiant: God of wisdom,

All: receive all we offer you this day. Enrich our lives with the gifts of your Spirit, that we may follow the way of our Lord Jesus Christ, and serve one another in freedom. We ask this in his name. Amen.

Officiant: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

Officiant: Lift up your hearts.

All: We lift them to the Lord.

Officiant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Officiant: It is indeed right that we should praise you, gracious God, for you created all things. You formed us in your own image. When we turned away from you in sin, you did not cease to care for us, but opened a path of salvation for all people. You made a covenant with Israel, and through your servants Abraham and Sarah gave the promise of a blessing to all nations. Through Moses you led your people from bondage into freedom; through the prophets you renewed your promise of salvation. Therefore, with them, and with all your saints who have served you in every age, we give thanks and raise our voices to proclaim the glory of your name.

All: Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

#719 Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Officiant: Holy God, source of life and goodness, all creation rightly gives you praise. In the fullness of time, you sent your Son Jesus Christ, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God of all. Jesus healed the sick and ate and drank with outcasts and sinners; he opened the eyes of the blind and proclaimed the good news of your kingdom to the poor and to those in need. In all things he fulfilled your gracious will. On the night he freely gave himself to death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: this is my body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." Gracious God, his perfect sacrifice destroys the power of sin and death; by raising him to life you give us life for evermore. Therefore, we proclaim the mystery of faith.

All: Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again.

Officiant: Recalling his death, proclaiming his resurrection, and looking for his coming again in glory, we offer you, this bread and this cup. Send your Holy Spirit upon us and upon these gifts, that all who eat and drink at this table may be one body and one holy people, a living sacrifice in Jesus Christ, our Lord.

Through Christ, with Christ, and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory is yours, almighty God, now and for ever.

All: Amen.

Officiant: And now, as our Saviour Christ has taught us, we sing,

All: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours now and for ever. Amen.

Officiant: Creator of all, you gave us golden fields of wheat, whose many grains we have gathered and made into this one bread.

All: So may your Church be gathered from the ends of the earth into your kingdom.

Officiant: The gifts of God for the people of God.

All: Thanks be to God.

*If you are unable to receive the wheat wafer, a rice wafer is available. While it is fully sufficient to receive in one kind, just the bread, the Common Cup is available for those who wish to receive. Please Note: Intinction is not allowed.

Musical Interlude

Officiant: God of power,

All: we are nourished by the riches of your grace. Raise us to new life in your son Jesus Christ and fit us for his eternal kingdom, that all the world may call him Lord. We ask this in his name. Amen.

Officiant: Glory to God,

All: whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine. Glory to God from generation to generation, in the Church and in Christ Jesus, for ever and ever. Amen.

Officiant: Live in hope, love with mercy, leave no stone unturned in your calling as one of God's precious disciples.

All: For as often as we heed the word of the Lord, we are turned toward what is good and beautiful.

Officiant: And the blessing

Announcements

Closing Hymn: Go to the World

#598

Go to the world! Go into all the earth.

Go preach the cross

where Christ renews life's worth, baptizing as the sign of our rebirth. Alleluia!

Go to the world! Go into every place.

Go live the word of God's redeeming grace.

Go seek God's presence in each time and space.
Alleluia!

Go to the world! Go struggle, bless, and pray;
the nights of tears give way to joyful day.

As servant church, you follow Christ's own way.
Alleluia!

Go to the world! Go as the ones I send,
for I am with you till the age shall end,
when all the hosts of glory cry, "Amen!"

Alleluia!

DM: Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Today, at 4:30 pm, in the Church (reception in Steacy Hall)

This afternoon, at 4:30, we will have a Celebration of New Ministry: The induction service of Rev. Chung Yan as Associate Incumbent of All Saints' Westboro. There will be a special reception afterwards that will include tastes of Chinese culture and other delicacies. This service will be in-person only.

Upcoming Events

Kid Squad helping seniors with technology

Sunday July 3rd, after the 9:30 am service

We will be setting up a table in the Chapel (if refreshments are outside) or in the Hall (if it is raining) with our Kid Squad available to help parishioners having difficulty with their devices (cell phones, iPads, etc.). This service would be helpful to seniors who don't have grandchildren nearby to assist them with updates, understanding the apps, and that sort of thing.

Thank you!

Thank you to the Truth and Reconciliation Committee for their participation and leadership in worship on June 19th—The National Indigenous Day of Prayer—and the All My Relations Labyrinth Event on June 22nd.
