8:00 am—Said Eucharist

9:30 am—Sung Eucharist

The Ven. Christopher Dunn

The Rev. Chung Yan Lam

The Rev. Deacon Jarrett Carty

Music: Edith Troup

Children and Youth: Julie Newlands

While the wearing of masks is no longer required, it is encouraged.

The 9:30 service is being broadcast on Zoom and recorded; if you attend in-person you may appear on camera and in the recording.

Officiant: Dear friends, we gather on the ancestral territory of the Anishnaabeg Algonquin people, the traditional stewards of the lands and waters on which we meet.

All: May we walk gently together on this land, seeking renewed relationship based on honour, respect, and peace.

Opening Hymn: Holy Spirit, Come with Power #643

Holy Spirit, come with power, breathe into our aching night.
We expect you this glad hour, waiting for your strength and light.
We are fearful, we are ailing,
we are weak and selfish too.
Break upon your congregation, give us vigour, life anew.

Holy Spirit, come with fire, burn us with your presence new.
Let us as one mighty choir sing our hymn of praise to you.
Burn away our wasted sadness and enflame us with your love.
Burst upon your congregation, give us gladness from above.

Holy Spirit, bring your message, burn and breathe each word anew deep into our tired living till we strive your work to do.
Teach us love and trusting kindness, lend our hands to those who hurt.
Breathe upon your congregation and inspire us with your word.

Children's Talk

(Please send the children to the front during the last verse of the Opening Hymn. The Children are invited to join the Church School following the talk.)

Officiant: Alleluia! Christ is risen.

All: The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia!

Officiant: May his grace and peace be with you.

All: May he fill our hearts with joy.

Officiant: Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful;

All: and kindle in us the fire of your love.

Officiant: Almighty God,

All: to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hidden. Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Officiant: Living God, you create all that is.

All: Send forth your Spirit to renew and restore us, so that we may proclaim your good news in ways and words that all will embrace and believe. Amen.

The First Reading is from Acts (2:1-21)

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability. Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power." All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine." But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel: 'In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.'"

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to the church.

All: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 104: 24-34, 35b How many and wise (tune #380)

How many and wise are the works of the Lord!
The earth with its wealth of creatures is stored.
The sea bears in safety the ships to and fro;
Leviathan plays in the waters below.

Your creatures all look to you for their food.
Your hand opens wide, they gather the good.

When you hide your face, Lord, in anguish they yearn;
when you stop their breathing, to dust they return.

Your Spirit, O Lord, makes life to abound.
The earth is renewed, and fruitful the ground.
To God be all glory and wisdom and might.
May God in his creatures forever delight.

Before the Lord's might earth trembles and quakes.
The mountains are rent,
and smoke from them breaks.

I promise to worship the Lord all my days.
Yes, while I have being, my God will I praise.

Rejoicing in God, my thought shall be sweet.
May sinners depart in ruin complete.
My soul, praise the Lord God—his name be adored.
Come, praise him, all people, and worship the Lord.

Psalm 104: 24-34, 35b (for use at 8:00 am and on Wednesday)

O Lord, how manifold are your works! In wisdom you have made them all; the earth is full of your creatures. Yonder is the great and wide sea with its living things too many to number, creatures both small and great. There move the ships, and there is that Leviathan, which you have made for the sport of it. All of them look to you to give them their food in due season. You give it to them; they gather it; you open your hand, and they are filled with good things. You hide your face, and they are terrified; you take away their breath, and they die and return to their dust. You send forth your Spirit, and they are created; and so you renew the face of the earth. May your glory, O Lord, endure for ever; may you rejoice in all your works; you look at the earth and it trembles; you touch the mountains and they smoke. I will sing to the Lord as long as I live; I will praise my God while I have my being. May these words of mine please you; I will rejoice in the Lord. Bless the Lord, O my soul. Hallelujah!

The Second Reading is from Romans (8:14-17)

For all who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God. For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received a spirit of adoption. When we cry, “Abba! Father!” it is that very Spirit bearing witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ—if, in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him.

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to the church.

All: Thanks be to God.

Gradual Hymn: Breathe on Me, Breath of God #649

Breathe on me, breath of God;
fill me with life anew,
that I may love what thou dost love,
and do what thou wouldst do.

Breathe on me, breath of God,
until my heart is pure, until my will is one with thine to do and to endure.

Breathe on me, breath of God,
till I am wholly thine, until this earthly part of me glows with thy fire divine.

Breathe on me, breath of God:
so shall I never die,
but live with thee the perfect life of thine eternity.

Reader: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

Reader: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John (14:8-17)

All: Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Philip said to him, "Lord, show us the Father, and we will be satisfied." Jesus said to him, "Have I been with you all this time, Philip, and you still do not know me? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, 'Show us the Father?' Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own; but the Father who dwells in me does his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; but if you do not, then believe me because of the works themselves. Very truly, I tell you, the one who believes in me will also do the works that I do and, in fact, will do greater works than these, because I am going to the Father. I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If in my name you ask me for anything, I will do it. If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you forever. This is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, because he abides with you, and he will be in you."

Reader: The Gospel of Christ.

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Homily

Prayers of the People

One: Loving God, we thank you for the wonder that erupted on the day of Pentecost, for the gifts of amazement and challenge, and for the many peoples of this earth whose languages offer special insights and whose ways of worship and compassion enrich our own. God, in your mercy,

All: hear our prayer.

One: We pray for all people around the globe who are refugees from war and famine. We pray for those who are lonely and frightened, imprisoned, homeless, or without work, including those in our own community, especially the clients of the Well, St. Luke's Table, and Centre 454. Strengthen our resolve to be better friends to our brothers and sisters in need. God, in your mercy,

All: hear our prayer.

One: We pray for all people of faith throughout the world. In our Anglican communion we pray for Linda, our Primate; Anne, our Metropolitan; Sidney, our Interim Indigenous Bishop; Shane, our Bishop; Chris, Chung Yan, and Jarrett, our clergy; and for all who hold leadership positions in this place. God, in your mercy,

All: hear our prayer.

One: We pray for those in our community who have asked for our prayers for wellness:

All: Betty-Joan (Hagerman); Cheryl (McTeer); Michele (Pollesel); Randy (Brown); Charlie (Cuffari); Barbara (Hill); Helen (Miller); Laura (DesClouds); Lois (Frazier-Nagel); Sue (Wise); Sarah (Vedell); Aneesa (Yonan); Shari (Rathwell); Viola (Martin); Anji (Carter); Valerie (Corbin); Brian (Taylor); Peter (Cormier); Peter (Frazier); Michael (Frazier); Alana (Andrews); Kevin (Andrews); Etienne (Hainzelin); Thelma (Mills); Sheila (Howe)

One: and for those whom we name silently or aloud. . . . Give them strength and let them feel the warmth of your love. God, in your mercy,

All: hear our prayer.

One: Knowing it is your Holy Spirit who has flowed through your witnesses of ages past, we give you thanks for all the saints who have gone before us, remembering this week the Martyrs of Uganda, including Archbishop Janani Luwum, who was murdered in 1977 by Idi Amin's henchmen. In our community, we remember those who have passed from this life to the next, especially for those whom we name silently or aloud . . . , and for all those who mourn their passing. God, in your mercy,

All: hear our prayer.

One: We pray that the Holy Spirit touches each of us so that we may marvel at new visions, and gain wisdom from your prophetic words. Let your fire burn in the leaders of the nations, in mayors and city councils and school boards, and in all of us, so we may protect the health and safety of all people and imagine a heaven on earth. With confidence that you hear our prayers and trusting that you give more than we need, we ask all of this through your Son, Jesus Christ,

All: Amen

Officiant: Dear friends in Christ, God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy. God welcomes sinners and invites us to the table. Let us confess our sins, confident in God's forgiveness.

Silence is kept

Officiant: Most merciful God,

All: we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

Officiant: Almighty God have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in eternal life; through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

Officiant: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

All: And also with you.

When exchanging the Peace share a sign of peace with others around you by other means such as bowing or waving.

Offertory Hymn: Wind Who Makes All Winds That Blow #249

Wind who makes all winds that blow—gusts that bend the saplings low, gales that heave the sea in waves, stirrings in the mind's deep caves—aim your breath with steady power on your church, this day, this hour.
Raise, renew the life we've lost, Spirit God of Pentecost.

Fire who fuels all fires that burn—suns around which planets turn, beacons marking reefs and shoals, shining truth to guide our souls—come to us as once you came;
burst in tongues of sacred flame!
Light and power, might and strength, fill your church, its breadth and length.

Holy Spirit, wind and flame, move within our mortal frame.
Make our hearts an altar pyre;
kindle them with your own fire.
Breathe and blow upon that blaze till our lives, our deeds and ways speak that tongue which every land by your grace shall understand.

Officiant: Giver of Life,

All: receive all we offer you this day. Let the Spirit you bestow on your Church continue to work in the world through the hearts of all who believe. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ the Lord. Amen.

Officiant: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

Officiant: Lift up your hearts.

All: We lift them to the Lord.

Officiant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Officiant: Eternal God, Source of all being, we give you thanks and praise for your faithful love. You call us into friendship with you and one another to be your holy people, a sign of your presence in the world. When those we trust betray us, unfailingly you remain with us. When we injure others, you confront us in your love and call us to the paths of righteousness. You stand with the weak, and those, broken and alone, whom you have always welcomed home, making the first last, and the last first. Therefore, we raise our voices with angels and archangels, forever praising you and singing:

All: Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

#719 Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Officiant: Blessed are you, O Holy One: when Hagar was driven into the wilderness you followed her and gave her hope. When Joseph was sold into bondage, you turned malice to your people's good.

When you called Israel out of slavery, you brought them through the wilderness into the promised land. When your people were taken into exile you wept with them by the river of Babylon and carried them home.

All: Restore us, O God, let your face shine!

Officiant: At the right time you sent your Anointed One to stand with the poor, the outcast, and the oppressed. Jesus touched lepers, and the sick, and healed them. He accepted water from a woman of Samaria and offered her the water of new life. Christ knew the desolation of the cross and opened the way for all humanity into the redemption of your reconciling love. On the night he was betrayed, Jesus, at supper with his friends, took bread, gave you thanks, broke the bread, gave it to them, and said, "Take and eat: this is my body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." After supper he took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: this is my blood of the new covenant which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." Loving and Holy One, recalling Christ's death and resurrection, we offer you these gifts, longing for the bread of tomorrow and the wine of the age to come. Therefore we proclaim our hope.

All: Dying you destroyed our death, rising you restored our life. Lord Jesus, come in glory.

Officiant: Pour out your Spirit on these gifts that through them you may sustain us in our hunger for your peace. We hold before you all whose lives are marked by suffering, our sisters and brothers. When we are broken and cast aside, embrace us in your love.

All: Restore us, O God, let your face shine!

Officiant: Through Christ, with Christ, and in Christ in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honour and glory are yours, O Source of all life, now and for ever.

All: Amen.

Officiant: And now, as our Saviour Christ has taught us, we sing,

All: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours now and for ever. Amen.

Officiant: "I am the bread of life," says the Lord. "Whoever comes to me will never be hungry; whoever believes in me will never thirst."

All: Taste and see that the Lord is good; happy are they who trust in God!

Officiant: The gifts of God for the people of God.

All: Thanks be to God.

Musical Interlude

*If you are unable to receive the wheat wafer, a rice wafer is available. While it is fully sufficient to receive in one kind, just the bread, the Common Cup is available for those who wish to receive. Please Note: Intinction is not allowed.

Officiant: Holy God,

All: may we who have received this eucharist live in the unity of your Holy Spirit, that we may show forth his gifts to all the world. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Officiant: Glory to God,

All: whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine. Glory to God from generation to generation, in the Church and in Christ Jesus, for ever and ever. Amen.

Officiant: Come, Holy Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

All: Come, Holy Spirit, and kindle in our hearts the fire of your love.

Officiant: And the blessing

Announcements

Closing Hymn: She Comes Sailing on the Wind #656

Refrain

She comes sailing on the wind, her wings flashing in the sun,
on a journey just begun, she flies on.
And in the passage of her flight,
her song rings out through the night;
full of laughter, full of light, she flies on.

Silent waters rocking on the morning of our birth, like an empty cradle waiting to be filled, and from the heart of God the Spirit moved upon the earth, like a mother breathing life into her child.

Many were the dreamers whose eyes were given sight when the Spirit filled their dreams with life and form.

Deserts turned to gardens, broken hearts found new delight, and then down the ages still she flew on.

Refrain

To a gentle girl in Galilee a gentle breeze she came, a whisper softly calling in the dark;

the promise of a child of peace whose reign would never end,
Mary sang the Spirit song within her heart.

Flying to the river, she waited circling high above the child now grown so full of grace.
As he rose up from the water,
she swept down from the sky,
and she carried him away in her embrace.

Refrain

Long after the deep darkness that fell upon the world, after dawn returned in flame of rising sun,
the Spirit touched the earth again,
again her wings unfurled, bringing life in wind and fire as she flew on.

Refrain

DM: Alleluia! Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.
All: Thanks be to God. Alleluia

Reading Circle

Wednesday, June 8th, at 7:30 pm, via Zoom

If you wish to join the discussion, please contact the office (office@allsaintswestboro.com). The book this month is Hamnet and Judith by Maggie O'Farrell.

This will be the last meeting of the season. We will be starting again in September, hopefully in-person. Stay tuned for news about picking books for next year and the format of our upcoming meetings.

Week of Prayer for Christian Unity Worship
Sunday, June 12th, at 4:00 pm, in the Church and Hall

The Christian Council of the Capital Area invites you to join us for an in-person gathering to celebrate the visible unity within our Christian communities to be able to pray together, especially with a liturgy prepared by the Christian Council of the Middle East.

The liturgy was entrusted to the Middle East Council of Churches based in Beirut, Lebanon and they chose the theme, “We have seen his star in the East and have come to pay homage to him” (Mt 2:2). More than ever, in these difficult times, we need a light that shines in the darkness and that light, Christians proclaim, has been manifested in Jesus Christ.

Please join us for a light reception after the prayer service for fellowship and conversations.

Today is the last day to bring toiletries, etc. for the Anglican Day Programs Spring Toiletries Drive. The drive is to provide needed supplies to the Well, St. Luke's Table, and Centre 454 day programs, which continue to respond to the needs of those living on the streets or in precarious inner city housing. If you were unable to drop off a donation, but wish to support the campaign, please consider donating online at <http://the-well.ca/ways-to-give>.
