

Update from All Saints'
Email to the Parish from The Venerable Christopher Dunn
14 July 2022

It is hard to believe that we are now halfway through July. I am not sure where the time is going. I hope that you are finding opportunities to get some rest time and relaxation.

On Sunday, we will celebrate the Sixth Sunday After Pentecost with our usual services at 8:00 and 9:30 am; we hear the story of Mary and Martha and their different approaches to serving Jesus. The children continue to gather for Summer Sunday School and their look at various prophets through the ages.

Here is the link to the bulletin: <https://www.allsaintswestboro.com/wp-content/uploads/2022/07/17-July-2022-Sixth-Sunday-after-Pentecost.pdf>. If you are unable to join us in person, I invite you to sign in on Zoom just before 9:30, using our usual Sunday morning Worship link: <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/83689498396>

On Wednesday we will hold our regular mid-week Eucharist, in the Church, at 10:30 am.

So, a prayer for today:

O God, in the course of this busy life give us times of refreshment and peace; and grant that we may so use our leisure to rebuild our bodies and renew our minds, that our spirits may be opened to the goodness of your creation. Amen.

Take care and be well,

Chris
