LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Dear friends, we gather on the ancestral territory of the Anishnaabeg Algonquin, the traditional stewards of the lands and waters on which we meet.

May we walk gently together on this land, seeking renewed relationships based on honour, respect, and peace.

CHILDREN'S TALK

Children are invited to join Children's Church after the talk.

GATHERING

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all. And also with you.

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hidden. Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Almighty God, in our baptism you adopted us for your own. Quicken, we pray, your Spirit within us, that we, being renewed both in body and mind, may worship you in sincerity and truth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A reading from the Book of Exodus (32:1-14).

When the people saw that Moses delayed to come down from the mountain, the people gathered around Aaron, and said to him, "Come, make gods for us, who shall go before us; as for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him." Aaron said to them, "Take off the gold rings that are on the ears of your wives, your sons, and your daughters, and bring them to me."

So all the people took off the gold rings from their ears, and brought them to Aaron. He took the gold from them, formed it in a mold, and cast an image of a calf; and they said, "These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!" When Aaron saw this, he built an altar before it; and Aaron made proclamation and said, "Tomorrow shall be a festival to the Lord." They rose early the next day, and offered burnt offerings and brought sacrifices of well-being; and the people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to revel. The Lord said to Moses, "Go down at once! Your people, whom you brought up out of the land of Egypt, have acted perversely; they have been quick to turn aside from the way that I commanded them; they have cast for themselves an image of a calf, and have worshipped it and sacrificed to it, and said, 'These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!'"

The Lord said to Moses, "I have seen this people, how stiff-necked they are. Now let me alone, so that my wrath may burn hot against them and I may consume them; and of you I will make a great nation." But Moses implored the Lord his God, and said, "O Lord, why does your wrath burn hot against your people, whom you brought out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand? Why should the Egyptians say, 'It was with evil intent that he brought them out to kill them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth'?"

Turn from your fierce wrath; change your mind and do not bring disaster on your people. Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, your servants, how you swore to them by your own self, saying to them, 'I will multiply your descendants like the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have promised I will give to your descendants, and they shall inherit it forever.'" And the Lord changed his mind about the disaster that he planned to bring on his people.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to the church.

Thanks be to God.

PSALM 106:1-6, 19-23

Hallelujah! Give thanks to the Lord who is good, whose mercy endures for ever.

Who can declare your mighty acts, O Lord, or show forth all your praise?

Happy are those who act with justice and always do what is right!

Remember me, O Lord, with the favour you have for your people, and visit me with your saving help;

that I may see the prosperity of your elect and be glad with the gladness of your people, that I may glory with your inheritance.

We have sinned as our ancestors did; we have done wrong and dealt wickedly.

Israel made a bull-calf at Horeb and worshipped a molten image;
and so they exchanged their Glory for the image of an ox that feeds on grass.

They forgot you, their saviour, who had done great things in Egypt, wonderful deeds in the land of Ham, and fearful things at the Red Sea.

So you would have destroyed them, had not Moses your chosen stood before you in the breach,
to turn away your wrath from consuming them.

A reading from the Letter of Paul to the Philippians (4:1-9).

Therefore, my brothers and sisters, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm in the Lord in this way, my beloved. I urge Euodia and I urge Syntyche to be of the same mind in the Lord. Yes, and I ask you also, my loyal companion, help these women, for they have struggled beside me in the work of the gospel, to together with Clement and the rest of my co-workers, whose names are in the book of life. Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God.

And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honourable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing the things that you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, and the God of peace will be with you.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to the church.

Thanks be to God.

GRADUAL HYMN

A Strand in the Web of Life Let Me Be

TLUS 2

We honour The Season of Creation by reflecting on our connection with each other and the earth.

A musical score for a gradual hymn in 4/4 time, key of B-flat major (two flats). The melody is written on a single staff with a treble clef. The lyrics are: "A strand in the web of life let me be, a string on the harp that the Spirit plays, at one with the sky and earth and the sea, in the web of life let me be, let me be, in the web of life let me be." The score is divided into five lines, with measure numbers 1, 3, 5, 7, and 9 indicated at the start of each line. The melody is simple and melodic, with a final cadence at the end.

1 A strand in the web of life let me be, a

3 string on the harp that the Spir - it plays, at 5 one with the sky and earth and the sea, in the 7 web of life let me be, let me be, in the 9 web of life let me be.

GOSPEL READING

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Matthew (22:1-14).

Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Once more Jesus spoke to them in parables, saying: "The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a wedding banquet for his son. He sent his slaves to call those who had been invited to the wedding banquet, but they would not come. Again he sent other slaves, saying, 'Tell those who have been invited: Look, I have prepared my dinner, my oxen and my fat calves have been slaughtered, and everything is ready; come to the wedding banquet.' But they made light of it and went away, one to his farm, another to his business, while the rest seized his slaves, mistreated them, and killed them. The king was enraged. He sent his troops, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city.

Then he said to his slaves, 'The wedding is ready, but those invited were not worthy. Go therefore into the main streets, and invite everyone you find to the wedding banquet.' Those slaves went out into the streets and gathered all whom they found, both good and bad; so the wedding hall was filled with guests. But when the king came in to see the guests, he noticed a man there who was not wearing a wedding robe, and he said to him, 'Friend, how did you get in here without a wedding robe?' And he was speechless. Then the king said to the attendants, 'Bind him hand and foot, and throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.' For many are called, but few are chosen."

The Gospel of Christ.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

HOMILY

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

Let us affirm our faith as we say together,

Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God, the Lord is one. Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength. This is the first and the great commandment. The second is like it: Love your neighbour as yourself. There is no commandment greater than these. Amen.

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

In this season of plenty and the completion of the growing season, let us give hearty thanks for the peace and bounty in which we live. Instill in us determination to do our utmost to see that others may also enjoy these blessings. God in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Grant, Almighty God, that all who confess your name may be united in your truth, live together in harmony, and reveal your love to the world. God in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

Guide the people of this land and of all other nations in the ways of justice and peace. May our leaders work for the cessation of war everywhere, and may all nations honour one another and serve the common good. God in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

Having come through the season of planting and growing, travel and recreation, we pause to consider the great gifts of creation on this day of Thanksgiving. May we feel a deep reverence for the earth and all its creatures. God in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Our clergy and lay people are closely linked in love of you and in service to others. We ask for courage and wisdom especially for our leaders Bishop John, Pastor Chung Yan, Archdeacon Brian Kauk, members of parish council, our music and worship leaders, property managers, and teachers of our young people. We also ask your blessing on our Primate Shane, our National Indigenous Archbishop Christopher, our Metropolitan Anne, and our bishop Kathryn. God in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Comfort and heal all those who suffer in mind, body, or spirit; give them strength and hope in their troubles and be present with their caregivers. This morning, we think especially of those who have asked for our prayers: Emily S.; David C.; John P.; Earla C.; Tony F.; John B.; Joan F.; Sue W.; Tajudeen A.J.; Benia S., Pam C.; Sandra C.; and Sharon A. We remember with gratitude those who have died and their loved ones. God in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Help us, O God, to remember the prayers we say today as we meet the week to come. God in your mercy, hear our prayer.

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

Dear friends in Christ, God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy; welcoming sinners and inviting them to God's table. Let us confess our sins, confident in God's forgiveness.

Silence is kept.

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

Almighty God have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

PEACE

The peace of the Lord be always with you. And also with you.

Share a sign of peace while respecting individual preferences.

OFFERTORY HYMN

As We Gather at Your Table

VU 457

As we gather at your table,
as we listen to your word,
help us know, O God, your presence;
let our hearts and minds be stirred.
Nourish us with sacred story till we claim it as our own;
teach us through this holy banquet
how to make Love's victory known.

Turn our worship into witness in the sacrament of life;
send us forth to love and serve you,
bringing peace where there is strife.
Give us, Christ, your great compassion to forgive as you forgave;
may we still behold your image
in the world you died to save.

Gracious Spirit, help us summon other guests to share that feast where triumphant Love will welcome those who had been last and least.
There no more will envy blind us nor will pride our peace destroy, as we join with saints and angels to repeat the sounding joy.

PRAYER OVER THE GIFTS

God of constant love, in this eucharist you renew the covenant made once with us in baptism. As you are faithful in all things may we, in our offering, be faithful to our calling. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

May God be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to God.

Let us give thanks to God our Creator.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

We give you thanks and praise, almighty God, for the gift of a world full of wonder, and for our life which comes from you. By your power you sustain the universe.

Glory to you for ever and ever.

You created us to love you with all our heart, and to love each other as ourselves, but we rebel against you by the evil that we do. In Jesus, your Son, you bring healing to our world and gather us into one great family. Therefore, with all who serve you on earth and in heaven, we praise your wonderful name, as we say [sing],

SANCTUS

OL#81564

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might.

Heav - en and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na, ho - san - na, ho - san - na in the name of the Lord. Ho -

(8:00 am - read together) Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

We give you thanks and praise, loving God, because in sending Jesus, your Son, to us you showed us how much you love us. He cares for the poor and the hungry. He suffers with the sick and the rejected. Betrayed and forsaken, he did not strike back but overcame hatred with love. On the cross he defeated the power of sin and death. By raising him from the dead you show us the power of your love to bring new life to all your people.

Glory to you for ever and ever.

On the night before he gave up his life for us, Jesus, at supper with his friends, took bread, gave thanks to you, broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "Take this, all of you, and eat it: this is my body which is given for you." After supper, Jesus took the cup of wine, said the blessing, gave it to his friends, and said, "Drink this, all of you: this is the cup of my blood, the blood of the new and eternal covenant, which is shed for you and for many, so that sins may be forgiven. Do this in memory of me."

Glory to you for ever and ever.

Gracious God, with this bread and wine we celebrate the death and resurrection of Jesus, and we offer ourselves to you in him. Send your Holy Spirit on us and on these gifts, that we may know the presence of Jesus in the breaking of bread, and share in the life of the family of your children.

Glory to you for ever and ever.

You call us to be your servants; fill us with the courage and love of Jesus, that all the world may gather in joy at the table of your kingdom. We sing your praise, almighty God, through Jesus, our Lord, in the power of the Holy Spirit, now and for ever.

Glory to you for ever and ever. Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

As our Saviour taught us, let us pray [sing],

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.

BREAKING OF THE BREAD

“I am the bread of life,” says the Lord. “Whoever comes to me will never be hungry; whoever believes in me will never thirst.”

Taste and see that the Lord is good; happy are they who trust in him!

The gifts of God for the people of God.

Thanks be to God.

PRAYER FOR SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

Joining with those online, let us pray: I cannot receive you today in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood, I implore you to come spiritually into my heart. Cleanse and strengthen me with your grace and let me never be separated from you. May I live in you, and you in me, in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Gracious God, in this meal you have drawn us to your heart, and nourished us at your table with food and drink, the body and blood of Christ. Now send us forth to be your people in the world, and to proclaim your truth this day and evermore, through Jesus Christ, our Saviour and Lord. Amen.

DOXOLOGY

Glory to God, whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine. Glory to God from generation to generation, in the Church and in Christ Jesus, for ever and ever. Amen.

BLESSING

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Blessing Song:

May the Lord rejoice with you, may the Lord bless you, and make his face to shine upon you, the God of Heaven loves you.

SENDING HYMN

Now Thank We All Our God

VU 236

Now thank we all our God, with heart, and hands, and voices, who wondrous things has done, in whom this world rejoices;
who from our mother's arms has blessed us on our way with countless gifts of love, and still is ours today.

O may this bounteous God through all our life be near us, with ever joyful hearts and blessed peace to cheer us,
and keep us strong in grace, and guide us when perplexed, and free us from all ill in this world and the next.

All praise and thanks to God for all that has been given,
the Son, and Spirit blest who dwell in highest heaven,
the one eternal God, whom heaven and earth adore;
for thus it was, is now, and shall be evermore.

DISMISSAL

Welcome to our New Incumbent (Message from Bishop Chapman): Dear Friends, On October 27th, our new Incumbent, the Venerable Brian Kauk, will arrive to begin his ministry with us. During these first few days, Archdeacon Kauk will familiarise himself with our offices, staff, and parish leadership. Sunday, November 1st, All Saints' Day, will mark his first official Sunday among us as our incumbent, priest, pastor, and teacher. Please introduce yourself to him, and remember to wear your name tag. We are a large parish, and it will take time for Brian to get to know us all. In the days ahead, please keep Brian in your prayers, along with the Parish of Mississippi Lake as they begin the process of finding a new priest to support their vital ministry.

Upcoming Events

Thanksgiving Day - the Church building will be CLOSED on Monday, October 12th.

Living Faith Together – Biblical Meditation - Lectio Divina - Sun. October 25th 11:15 am Chapel: Lectio Divina is a meditative, prayerful practice reading scripture. Come to the Chapel at 11:00 am for a short learning about Biblical Meditation from The Bible Project and participate together in a Lectio Divina practice. It will be a time to slow down and deepen your relationship with scripture.

Building Faith at Home - Advent Kits - Sign up by November 8th. New this year! To help you continue to worship God and share your faith together, not just on Sunday, ASW will be offering home worship kits for your family whether you have small ones, teens or adults. Please come to the Chapel on Nov. 22nd at 11:00 am to pick up your Advent kit with a brief explanation of everything inside. Sign up by Nov. 8th with Janet or ASW Office.

Giving Thanks Note from Stewardship Committee: As we work our way toward the November stewardship campaign, we invite you to reflect on things we are thankful for at All Saints Westboro. As we celebrate this Thanksgiving Sunday, please choose one of the wooden leaves in the basket at the back of the church or on the tables at coffee hour and write a word or two about what you are thankful for at All Saints Westboro. We will display them on the bulletin board in Stacey Hall as a visual reminder of our vibrant community.

Save the date!

November 1st (Sunday): All Saints Sunday Potluck Lunch at 10:45 am, Steacy Hall. All are welcome.

November 9th (Sunday): Remembrance Sunday will integrate an act of remembrance into our Sunday worship, along with our friends from the Westboro Legion. We will affirm the crucial need to pray and to build peace. We invite all who participate in Guides and Scouts to feel free to also wear their uniforms along with our veterans and all in active service.

November 14th (Saturday): Bazaar is Nov 14th. If you have questions, please contact Helen bazaar@allsaintswestboro.com.
